*This school is dedicated to the development of the youth who attend
here, that they may grow in knowledge and understanding . . . that they may build a better nation in a better world.*

EXPLORER VI 1963

FOREWORD

Footprints like shadows fade and disappear but the people who leave the footprints move on to other places. We, the class of 1963, are leaving now for other spheres, we hope to move onward and forward in the field of education, in the field of work and ultimately into our rightful places in the world about us.

Though the footprints we are leaving will soon be gone we hope to keep our memories of these years at Clinton Place stored safely in this our yearbook to be brought to light from time to time in fond recollection.

DEDICATION

Mrs. Anne Strome

Mr. Lloyd Adler

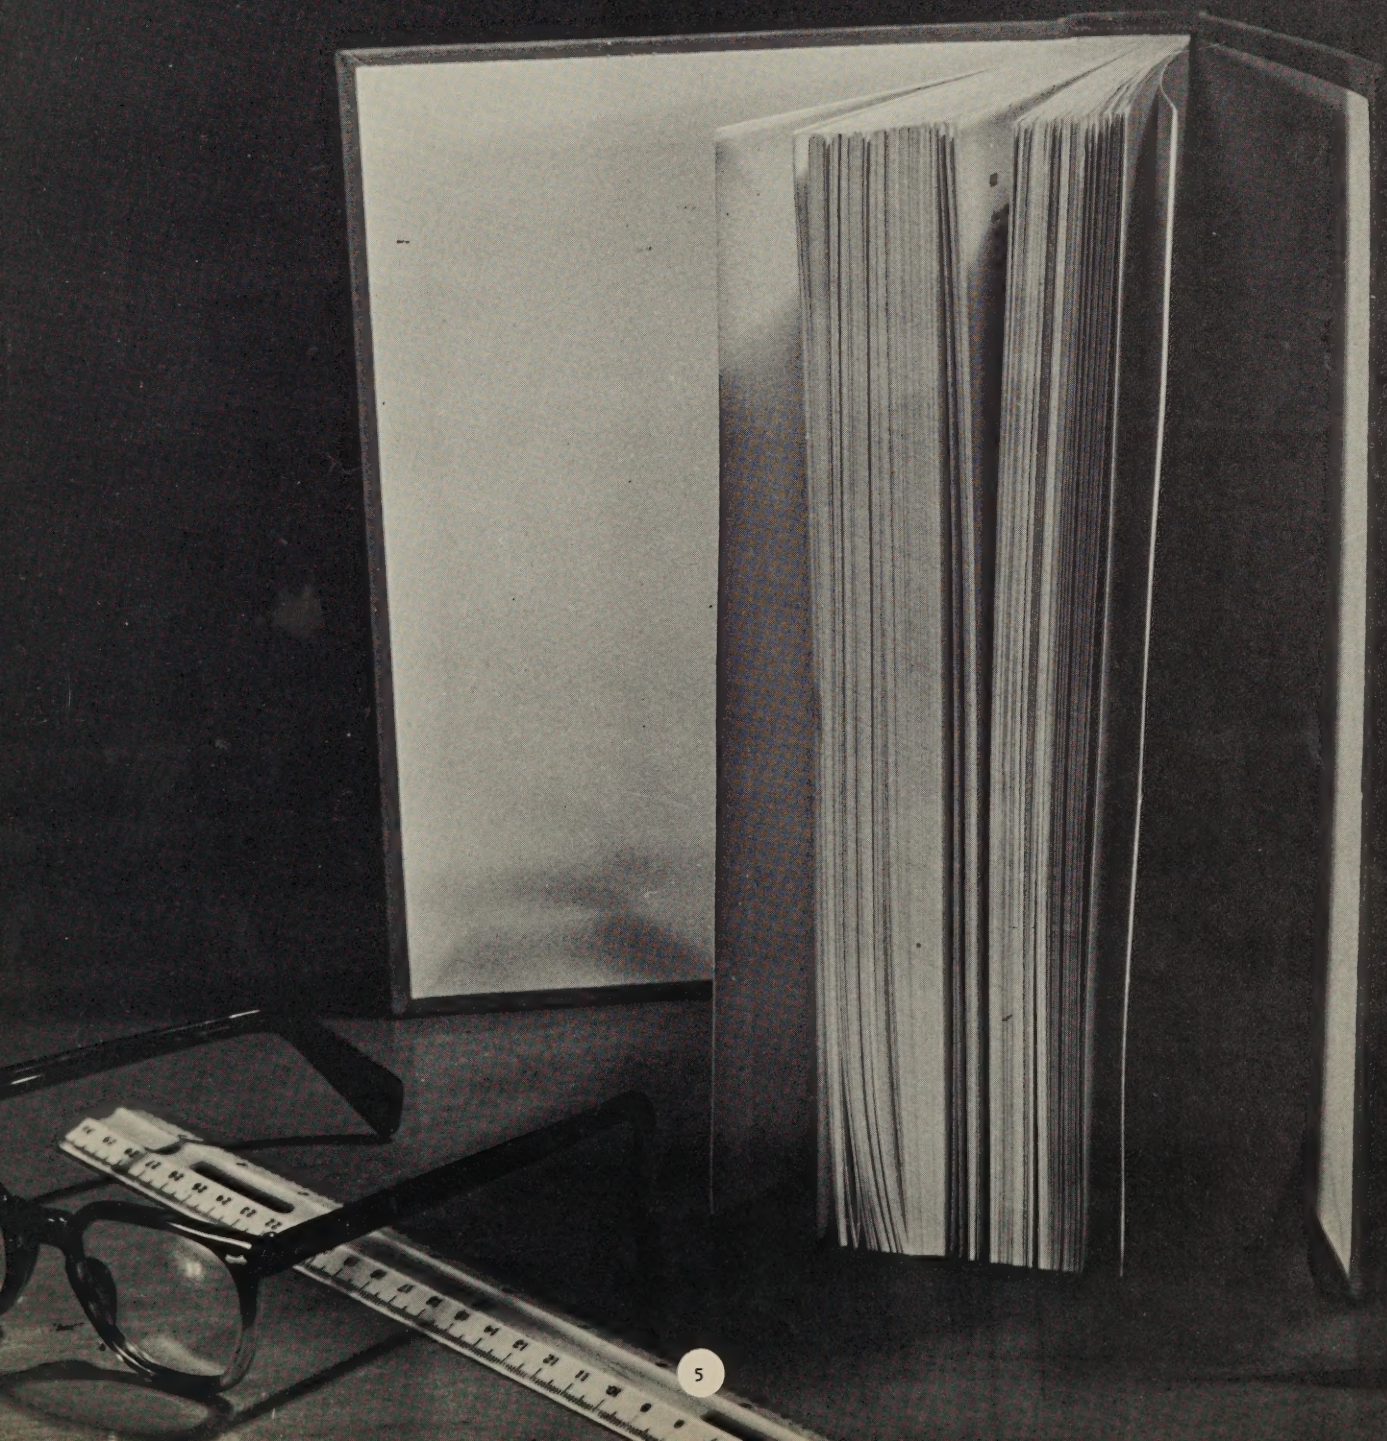

To you, Mrs. Anne Strome and to you, Mr. Lloyd Adler, our yearbook advisors, we the class of June 1963, dedicate this yearbook. For six years you have directed the path of the EXPLORER. We fully realize the time, work and the interest you have shown in this project. In this small way we wish to say "Thank you" for your encouragement and understanding.

Although in time our footprints will fade as they must, the remembrance of our work together will remain always.

ADMINISTRATION

Dear Seniors:

April 9, 1963

Tour teachers and I have provided for you those learning experiences essential to your growth. We have helped you identify your weaknesses and your strengths. The program of studies you have pursued in this junior high school has assisted you in the development of your individual talents and abilities.

It is the function of education in a democracy to do this. We are proud of the progress you have made. The future belongs to you. Use it wisely so that one day, as adult members of a democratic society, you may contribute your part to help build America and keep her strong and free.

My sincere good wishes go with you. I am proud to have been your principal.

Sincerely yours,

ALEXANDRA S. D'ALESSANDRO, Principal

6 Alexandra S. D'Alessandro

The earliest congratulations to all the graduates. You have done your share toward furthering your own education and contributing to the fine reputation of your school. In the words of the poet Longfellow, you have left your "footprints on the sands of time". May I remind you however that you have a long way to go. As Robert Frost put it, you have "promises to keep and miles to go before you sleep".

THE GRADUATES

We are the graduates, this day is ours.
To step forward to meet the challenge of a new world
And all the days ahead we now break into shining hours
In which to build our dreams, to try our strength, to prove our powers.

We are the graduates and today we take a backward glance
To think once more of all our childhood joys
And know in truth those guided years, not left to chance
But truly planned with thought and deed as in a patterned dance.

We are the graduates and now we say hail, farewell
Our footprints leave a tracing on the grass
The future beckons and we yearn to move beyond
And bravely grasp the future that no one can foretell.

STUDENT'S CODE

I am a young teenager embarking upon adulthood. In order to achieve maturity, I must fulfill my duty to my parents, teachers, friends, and to myself as an individual.

I must

1. Dress appropriately, follow the rules of good posture, speech, and manners.
2. Respect all races and religions so that brotherhood and good will can be shared by all people.
3. Appreciate the value of public and private property in order to maintain the high standards of my school and community.
4. Practice the principles of democracy and the rules of my school because they are beneficial to me and my fellow classmates.

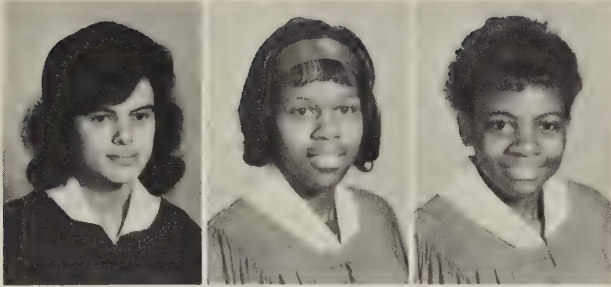

I will try to uphold with dignity and pride, the ideals and rules of my school and this code at all times.

Adopted by the Student Council
April 1958

CLASS POEM

Listen my classmates and you shall hear
Of a wonderful class and a famous year

Down through the corridors, on to the gym
March the boys who are fat and the girls who are thin.

There we all meet and in chorus complain
Of what is our pleasure and what is our pain

How we suffered when walking in dull single file
Not a word to a friend, not even a smile.

And for chewing our gum, we're bound to be fined
Double-mint, spear-mint--any old kind.

Then going to classes without any books
Means double detention and very harsh looks.

We don't want to reform, we are as we are
But three years of this hasn't gotten us far

But now let us tally the good with the bad
And list some of the nicer things we have had

We shall never forget the games that we've won
Or the democractic way our elections were run.

Remember the shows with music and dances
Just how many schools could offer such chances?

Making the Honor Roll, reaching for fame
Citizenship, sports, there are many to name.

Even our teachers seem gentle and wise
Are we leaving them now with tears in our eyes?

Our course we have run, and now we are free
But Clinton Place lives in our fond memory!!

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

June 1963

We, the class of June 1963, having completed our three-year term at Clinton Pl. Jr. High School, do hereby draw up this, our last will and testament leaving all our worthy goods, tangible and intangible as they may be, as follows:

- |                          |  |
|--------------------------|--|
| Mrs. D'Alessandro        | -- Our deepest appreciation for her unlimited patience and understanding, and our sincere promise to go forward "single file". |
| Mr. Coppola              | -- The title "The Man in the Gray Flannel Suit".   |
| Mrs. Wasserburger        | -- A gold star for a cleared desk.   |
| Mr. Fiordaliso           | -- A piggy-bank to keep our chewing gum nickels in.  |
| Mr. Gold                 | -- A pen that writes.  |
| Mr. Brown                | -- A life's supply of $C_6H_7O_4$ (Aspirin)!   |
| Mrs. Iuliano             | -- A bouquet of our best wishes.   |
| Mrs. Strome              | -- Our money$$$.  |
| Mr. Adler                | -- A set of s-t-r-e-t-c-h caps and gowns.  |
| Mr. Smith                | -- Tickets to a "silent lunch".  |
| Mr. Traynor              | -- A flowered apron.   |
| Mrs. Fisch               | -- Memories of Miss Kramer.  |
| Mr. Sosnow               | -- A Basketball team made up of all "John Watts".  |
| Mr. Applebaum            | -- A soft answer.  |
| Miss Anderson            | -- Mucho algeia en los anos que viene.   |
| Mrs. Klayman             | -- A ventilation system for the "Clinton Cluster Dungeon".   |
| Mr. Ertzberger           | -- A funny happening on the way to the Forum.  |
| Mr. Nevola               | -- Our complete silence.   |
| Mrs. Kamen               | -- A pocketfull of dimes for future phone calls.   |
| Mr. Magala & Miss Melito | -- Our best wishes that they live happily ever after . . .   |
| Mrs. Hensley             | -- A peppermint tongue depresser.  |

Chorus

Nestled in Newark on a busy street,
Stands a school that can't be beat.
Clinton Place the name rings loud
Among the students who are so proud.

Clinton Place Oh Clinton Place,
Your banners raised on high,
We sing to you a song of praise;
Your name will never die.

2

Beautiful things all make our school,
One huge diamond a precious jewel.
We're thankful for this place to learn
For in our hearts great pride will burn.
